

ESL RESOURCES: WEB SITES For the Teacher

8/06

Center for Applied Linguistics

<http://www.cal.org/index.html>

Contains full-text articles from ERIC digests and journals, answers to frequently asked questions about adult ESL instruction, lists of resources, and more. Click on Topics, then on English Language Learners.

Dave's ESL Café: Idea Cookbook:

<http://www.eslcafe.com/ideas/index.html>

Contains lots of teaching ideas for the ESL classroom.

English as a Second Language: Lesson Plans:

<http://www.rong-chang.com/>

Contains links to sources of ESL lesson plans.

ESL-Lounge:

<http://www.esl-lounge.com/>

A web site for teachers including lesson plans, free ESL board games, song lyrics, links to other web sites and online dictionaries, and more.

ESL Magazine:

<http://www.eslmag.com/>

An online journal for ESL teachers; contains the full text of feature articles as well as links to other ESL web sites.

Everything ESL:

<http://www.everythingsl.net/>

Includes lesson plans, teaching tips, downloadable classroom activities, and more.

The Internet TESL Journal:

<http://iteslj.org/>

Contains articles, research papers, lesson plans, classroom handouts, and teaching ideas and links.

Karin's ESL Partyland:

<http://www.eslpartyland.com/>

Contains teaching pages with ideas, resources, and web links.

National Clearinghouse for English Language Acquisition:

<http://www.ncela.gwu.edu/resabout/ells/>

Contains links to publications, research centers and clearinghouses, and organizations.

New York State Bilingual Education and Foreign Language Studies:

<http://www.emsc.nysed.gov/biling/>

Source for the NYS ESL learning standards as well as other information.

OWL: Online Writing Lab:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/handouts/esl/index.html>

From Purdue University, contains links to reproducible handouts and exercises, grammar handouts, and resource pages.

Using English.com

<http://www.usingenglish.com/teachers.html>

Includes printable handouts, pdf lesson plans, links to articles and online dictionaries and reference works, and more.

KEHartman

8/24/2006

MVCC