Globus Introduction to Ireland Tour

Dublin and the scenic best of the Irish Republic await you on this beautiful eight-day journey, a popular pick for travelers. In Dublin, enjoy a visit to Oscar Wilde's Trinity College as part of an orientation drive around this vibrant city. A scenic ride through horse-racing country leads you to the National Stud and then to Limerick. Next, savor the breathtaking views of the Cliffs of Moher and the Clare Coast, and enjoy Irish hospitality at Rathbaun Farm. After taking a ferry across the Shannon, a panoramic drive takes you around the stunning Ring of Kerry. The world famous Waterford Crystal Factory, Ireland's oldest handweaving mill at Avoca, Glendalough, and the scenic Wicklow Mountains conclude your Irish journey. This vacation is ideal for first-time visitors to Ireland with only a little time to spare.
