Luke is Chief Economist for Wilmington Trust Investment Advisors (WTIA), a part of the M&T Bank family. He leads the economics team that sets the direction of the firm's macroeconomic outlook. Luke is also a member of WTIA's Investment Committee, and plays a critical role in the execution of our economic-led investment process.

Prior to joining Wilmington Trust in 2015, Luke was an officer and economic advisor with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. Earlier in his career, Luke worked as a senior economist at IHS Global Insight and as an economist for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Luke holds a Ph.D. and a master's degree in economics from Temple University, and a bachelor's degree in economics and history from James Madison University. He is a former adjunct faculty member at Temple University and formerly served on the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Economic Association. In addition, Luke is former president of the Philadelphia Council for Business Economics, a chapter of the National Association for Business Economics.
